8.0 Any other items with permission of Chair.

1. Dr. K. Venkateswara Rao, the Registrar, has advised prioritizing three key areas: the authenticity of research publications, the NPTEL certification credit transfer process, and the enhancement of average campus placement salaries.
2. Dr. P. Swetha's suggestion to conduct more conferences, Faculty Development Programs (FDPs), and workshops is an excellent approach to enhance the academic environment and research quality at the institution. These activities can serve multiple purposes: improving faculty skills, fostering research collaborations, and increasing the visibility of the institution's work.
3. Dr. P. Shai Kumar's suggestion to improve industry interaction is a powerful approach to bridge the gap between academic research and real-world applications. By fostering stronger ties with industry partners, both faculty and students can gain exposure to cutting-edge technologies, practices, and trends that are critical for enhancing research quality, teaching relevance, and employability.
