3. About the Event

The Global Youth Kindness Seminar, "Rising with Kindness", held at Kanha Shanti Vanam, Hyderabad, is a unique international event that brings together young people from around the world who believe in the power of compassion to create global change, one kind act at a time.

The seminar is designed to guide participants through a meaningful journey, moving from personal kindness to compassionate interactions and, ultimately, to collective harmony. Sessions are conducted by international speakers, spiritual leaders, policy makers and industry experts, and are supported by meditation, yoga, cultural programmes and group activities.

4. Proceedings of the Programme

Introduction

From 20th to 22nd September 2024, the students had the privilege of participating in the event "Rising with Kindness", held at Kanha Shanti Vanam, Hyderabad. Guided by the faculty coordinator, Ms. V.

Suzan Shalini, the event was an enriching experience filled with activities, discussions and reflections that fostered peace, kindness and inner well-being.

Day 1 – 20th September 2024

- The students left the college by college transport and reached Kanha Shanti Vanam on 20th September 2024 at 8:30 AM.
- After settling into the rooms, they attended the inauguration ceremony of the youth seminar "Rising with Kindness" from 9:30 AM to 12:30 PM. The event was marked by key addresses from Shri Kamlesh Patel (Rev. Daaji) and Dr. Mansukh Mandaviya, Hon'ble Union Minister of Youth Affairs and Sports, India, who served as the keynote speaker and chief guest.
- A sattvic lunch was served at 1:45 PM.
- The first session, "Surviving through Difficult Times", was conducted by Ms. Sanjana Senthuraman from 2:30 PM to 4:30 PM. It was a profound exploration of resilience and strength during challenging phases of life.
- After the session, refreshments were provided and the participants explored the surroundings of Kanha Shanti Vanam, including the serene sceneries and Books & More.
- The evening concluded with a musical night by Ms. Shibani Kashyap from 7:00 PM to 9:00 PM, followed by dinner at 9:00 PM.

Day 2 – 21st September 2024

- The day began with "Yoga with Yogavahini" from 5:00 AM to 7:00 AM, offering a rejuvenating start.
- After breakfast at 7:30 AM, the participants attended an insightful morning session that featured multiple keynote addresses:
 1. Mr. Martin Raiser (SVP, South Asia, World Bank) provided a global perspective on development.
 2. Dr. Hamdan Al Shaer (Deputy Chairman, Zayed International Foundation for Environment) addressed the International Day of Peace and the role of youth in peacebuilding.
 3. Mr. Brijesh Dholakia (CEO, Hari Krishna Exports) shared his leadership journey.
 4. Shri Uttam Kumar Reddy (Hon'ble Minister, Telangana) spoke about various socio-economic issues.
 5. A panel discussion moderated by Ms. Mamata Subramanian featured experts such as Mr. Sushil Ram (Commonwealth Secretariat), Ms. Paula Padrino Vilela (UNCCD) and Ms. Jennifer Larson (US Consul General), discussing global peace and collaboration.
- After lunch at 1:00 PM, the students attended a breakout session on "Being a Heartful Leader" by Mr. Prashant Vasu from 2:00 PM to 3:30 PM.
- The evening was spent exploring the K-ARNIVAL (Kindness Carnival) from 4:30 PM to 6:45 PM.
- An interactive session with Mr. Shekhar Kapur (National Award-winning filmmaker) and Ms. Alina Allam (Founder, Meeti Cafe) gave profound insights into leadership and kindness.
- The day concluded with musical performances by Safar Band and Heartunes from 7:30 PM to 9:45 PM.

Day 3 – 22nd September 2024

- Day 3 began with "Yoga with Yogavahini" from 5:00 AM to 7:30 AM, followed by breakfast at 8:00 AM.
- The participants visited the Yatra Garden and the Babuji Maharaj Statue, where they meditated for five minutes, soaking in the peaceful environment.
- The highlight of the day was a meditation session by Shri Kamlesh Patel (Rev. Daaji), followed by keynote addresses by Shri Jupally Krishna Rao (Minister, Telangana) and Daaji himself, who emphasised peace and compassion in daily life.
- After lunch at 1:00 PM, the participants left Kanha Shanti Vanam, carrying back a deep sense of peace and positivity.

Overview – Day 1

The inaugural ceremony of the youth seminar "Rising with Kindness", held on 20th September 2024 at Kanha, emphasised the significance of kindness in personal and societal development. The event gathered around 5,000 young participants from various regions, fostering a sense of community and shared purpose.

Key Highlights from Daaji's Address

6. Unity and cooperation: Daaji highlighted the need for love, cooperation and progress among the youth, encouraging them to work together towards common goals.
7. Life perspectives: He urged participants to choose a positive perspective on life, focusing on love and growth rather than a mechanical existence.
8. Hard work and success: He shared personal anecdotes on the importance of hard work and determination in achieving success.
9. Cultural heritage: He referenced the teachings of the Mahabharata and the Ramayana, emphasising duty and righteous action.
10. Service to society: He stressed that social service should be an integral part of life.
11. Inspiration and motivation: He concluded by encouraging participants to take inspiration from the seminar and commit to personal and national development.

Key Highlights from Dr. Mansukh Mandaviya's Address

12. Importance of youth: He highlighted the crucial role of youth in shaping India's future, urging them to embrace kindness, cooperation and a sense of duty towards national development.
13. Personal growth and clarity: He encouraged participants to reflect on their life goals and aspirations, emphasising clarity of objectives.
14. Meditation and stability: He stressed the importance of meditation in achieving mental stability and focus.
15. Potential and talent: He affirmed that every individual possesses immense potential and urged the youth to recognise and harness their abilities.
16. Government initiatives: He discussed initiatives aimed at empowering youth, such as financial support for start-ups and the My Bharat platform.
17. Vision for a developed India: He reiterated India's goal of becoming a developed nation by 2047.
18. Call to action: He urged the youth to engage actively with the government, share their ideas and contribute to national progress.

Overview – Day 2

The second day of the summit took place on 21st September 2024, aligning with the International Day of Peace. The gathering brought together youth, development professionals and leaders from various sectors. The discussions focused on peace, development and sustainability, highlighting the crucial role of inclusivity and environmental stewardship in shaping a better future.

19. Global development efforts: A development professional shared personal experiences of working with street children in Brazil, demonstrating the power of kindness in transformative work.
20. Inclusive development for peace: Sustainable development must include all members of society; exclusion can lead to anger and violence, while inclusivity fosters peace and growth.
21. Youth empowerment: With 1.6 billion young people in South Asia expected to enter the workforce over the next decade, education and skill development are critical.
22. Artificial intelligence and climate change: The transformative impact of AI was discussed, with predictions that it could add USD 20 trillion to the global economy by the end of the decade; climate change was identified as a major challenge requiring innovative solutions and youth involvement.
23. Heartfulness initiatives: The Heartfulness Institute was recognised for its environmental and mindfulness initiatives, including planting over one million trees and establishing a nursery for millions of saplings.
24. Mindfulness in a digital world: The importance of mindfulness and balance for mental well-being was emphasised.

Overview – Day 3

The third day, on 22nd September 2024, centred on the themes of kindness, self-care and youth engagement. The discussions emphasised the importance of fostering compassion both for oneself and for others, with the ultimate goal of contributing to societal well-being and unity.

25. Kindness in a competitive world: Speakers emphasised that in today's fast-paced, competitive world, kindness and compassion are more vital than ever.
26. Self-kindness: Participants were encouraged to practise self-kindness, as it forms the foundation for personal growth, mental health and extending compassion to others.
27. Youth engagement: With India being home to the largest youth population, the engagement of young people in kindness initiatives is essential for driving societal change.
28. Spirituality and environmental sustainability: The Heartfulness movement's efforts in combining spirituality with environmental stewardship were celebrated.
29. Meditation for spiritual nourishment: Meditation was highlighted as a key practice for cultivating peace and kindness within oneself and one's community.

Reflections

The experience at the Rising with Kindness event was transformative. Each session emphasised the importance of kindness, peace and inner strength, providing the participants with tools to navigate life's challenges. Through discussions, meditation and mindfulness practices, the students gained inner peace and clarity in facing difficulties, a deeper understanding of the role of kindness in building stronger communities, and an appreciation of the value of youth leadership in fostering peace and harmony worldwide.

Conclusion

The three-day "Rising with Kindness" seminar at Kanha Shanti Vanam inspired the participants to embrace kindness, compassion and unity, while motivating them to pursue entrepreneurship and start-ups. Day 1 emphasised hard work, cooperation and the role of youth in nation-building. Day 2 reinforced that businesses can drive peace, development and sustainability, with innovation addressing global challenges such as climate change. Day 3 emphasised self-kindness, spirituality and community building. The Department expresses its sincere gratitude to Ms. V. Suzan Shalini for making this journey possible, to the management of Kanha Shanti Vanam for organising such a meaningful event, and to the Management of VMTW for their constant encouragement and support.
