4.	Review website navigation and presentation of NAAC information.	Website Committee has reviewed the website navigation.
5.	Complete the first phase of NAAC-related website updates.	All Departments has updated the NAAC website related data.

Agenda Item 2: Recognition and Website Promotion of NAAC A+ Accreditation Achieved in February 2024

The committee expressed its appreciation for the institution's achievement of the NAAC A+ Grade in February 2024. It was resolved that this prestigious accomplishment should be prominently highlighted on the homepage and other relevant sections of the website. The committee recommended displaying the NAAC A+ logo, accreditation certificate, peer team report, and a brief note describing the institution's quality initiatives and achievements that contributed to securing the accreditation.

Agenda Item 3: Creation of a Dedicated NAAC A+ Accreditation Section on the College Website

The committee discussed the need for a separate and comprehensive NAAC A+ section on the website. It was resolved that the section should include accreditation details, Self Study Report (SSR), Institutional Distinctiveness, Best Practices, AQAR reports, DVV clarifications, peer team recommendations, and quality assurance initiatives undertaken by the institution. The section shall be designed to provide easy access to stakeholders seeking information related to accreditation and quality enhancement activities.

Agenda Item 4: Uploading and Maintenance of Club, Committee, NSS, Sports, Library, and Placement Activity Information

The committee reviewed the status of information available for various clubs, committees, NSS activities, sports achievements, library services, and placement activities. It was decided that dedicated webpages shall be maintained for each activity with updated details such as objectives, coordinators, event reports, photographs, annual activities, student participation, achievements, and outcomes. Concerned coordinators were instructed to submit verified information periodically to ensure regular updates.

Agenda Item 5: Creation of a Digital Repository for Institutional Policies, AQARs, Annual Reports, and Quality Assurance Documents

The committee emphasized the importance of transparency and easy accessibility of institutional documents. It was resolved to create a centralized digital repository on the website containing institutional policies, strategic plans, annual reports, AQARs, IQAC reports, governance documents, committee reports, statutory disclosures, and other quality assurance records. The repository shall be organized systematically to facilitate access for students, faculty, accreditation agencies, and other stakeholders.

Agenda Item 6: Display of Institutional Achievements, Rankings, NBA Accreditation, MoUs, Research Publications, and Placements

The committee discussed the need to effectively showcase institutional accomplishments and performance indicators. It was resolved that a dedicated achievements section shall be created to highlight rankings, NBA accreditation status, research publications, patents, funded projects, MoUs, industry collaborations, placement records, student achievements, faculty awards, and innovation activities. The committee noted that systematic presentation of these achievements would enhance the institution's visibility and reputation among stakeholders.

Resolutions

1. The institution's NAAC A+ Accreditation achievement shall be prominently displayed across the website.
2. A dedicated NAAC A+ Accreditation section shall be developed and maintained.
3. All clubs, committees, NSS, sports, library, and placement activities shall be updated regularly on the website.
4. A centralized digital repository for quality assurance and institutional documents shall be established.
5. Institutional achievements, rankings, NBA accreditation details, research outputs, MoUs, and placement records shall be showcased systematically.
6. Departmental Website Coordinators shall ensure timely submission and verification of website content.
7. Quarterly reviews shall be conducted to monitor website updation activities and maintain data accuracy.

The Chairperson appreciated the active participation and cooperation of all committee members and emphasized the importance of maintaining an informative, transparent, and stakeholder-friendly institutional website. The meeting concluded with a vote of thanks to the Chair.

2.	Create a dedicated webpage for Autonomous Status containing academic and statutory information.	A separate Autonomous webpage was developed with approval orders, academic regulations, curriculum framework, Board of Studies, Academic Council, Examination Cell details, academic calendar, ordinances, and FAQs.
3.	Publish Autonomous Status approval details, effective academic year, governing bodies, and relevant institutional information.	Verified autonomous approval documents, academic regulations, statutory committee information, examination procedures, and institutional documents were uploaded and are being updated periodically.
4.	Update the institutional website to reflect Autonomous governance, academic regulations, and examination framework.	The website was updated with autonomous regulations, Scheme of Instruction, examination rules, academic handbooks, curriculum revisions, Controller of Examinations information, and student academic services. Departmental webpages were revised in accordance with the autonomous curriculum.
5.	Improve website design and navigation for easy accessibility of Autonomous-related information.	Homepage banners, quick links, navigation menus, and responsive design were enhanced to provide convenient access to Autonomous information. The Website Developer ensured consistency, accessibility, and timely maintenance of all updated webpages.

Agenda Item 2: Collection and Verification of Departmental Data

The committee discussed the systematic collection of website-related data from all departments. Departmental Website Coordinators were instructed to collect, verify, and submit updated information related to faculty profiles, departmental achievements, laboratories, research

Agenda Item 3: Updating Faculty Profiles on the Website

The committee resolved that all faculty members shall submit updated profiles including qualifications, experience, publications, patents, research projects, certifications, FDPs attended, professional memberships, and recent photographs. The respective Heads of Departments shall verify the information before forwarding it for website updation.

Agenda Item 4: Uploading Student Achievements on the Website

The committee emphasized the importance of showcasing student achievements on the institutional website. Departments were instructed to collect verified information regarding university ranks, placements, internships, certifications, project awards, technical competitions, sports achievements, cultural activities, publications, and other accomplishments. The Website Developer shall ensure timely uploading and regular updating of the information.

The Chairperson appreciated the cooperation of all committee members and emphasized that the institutional website should continue to serve as an authentic and comprehensive source of information for students, parents, faculty members, regulatory bodies, and other stakeholders. The meeting concluded with a vote of thanks to the Chair.
